IMPROVEMENT AND HARMONIZATION OF BEST PRACTICES IN THE EUROPEAN UNION

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The First Edition of SDCR Summer School is linked to a Jean Monnet Module that has been selected for EU support (2019-2022). It is part of the BASE (BICOCCA AMBIENTE SOCIETÀ ECONOMIA) initiatives at University of Milan-Bicocca. All classes and activities will be held at their regularly scheduled date - from July 20 to 24 and from July 27 to 31 - using video meetings rooms and remote learning platforms. The full schedule will be delivered to all enrolled students. Every day you will be required to attend a 3 hours class of lecture/activity. It will provide to participants 11 days of lectures, seminars, workshops, class assignments, discussions and group exercises. The program will look into how, local and global actors, take into account the needs to disclose on non financial information. The aim is to promote teaching, discussion and dissemination of information on sustainability reporting and related activities at the European level in the context of the adoption of the Directive EU/95/2014. The program aims to deepen participants' knowledge, understanding and building their competencies on the role and value of sustainability reporting and to give participants the possibility to grow their skill-set regarding to:

- Intercultural, financial, economic and sociological aspects of corporate social responsibility in the business and finance context
- Directive EU/95/2014 and its implementation in the European Union
- Climate change: the role of economic system at local and global level
- Co-creation of viable pathways to long-term sustainable initiatives in profit and non profit sectors

SDCR School aims to be more than a summer school: you will have the chance to meet, compare your ideas for a sustainable future together with participants from different geographical and educational backgrounds.

With the support of the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union
